Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see page 4, filed 1/18/2011, with respect to the 112 first paragraph have been fully considered and are persuasive. The 112 first paragraph rejections of claims 8 to 14 have been withdrawn.

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

2. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Willaim Gehris on 3-24-2011.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 17, line 5 "vane foot" has been changed to --vane tip--.

The above change was made to correct a typographical error.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the instant invention is deemed to be an unobvious improvement over the prior art of US Patent No. 6,488,238 to Battisti, US Patent No. 6,729,846 to Wobben, US Patent No. 4,930,729 to Savill, US Patent No. 5,069,403 to Marentic et al. and US Patent No. 6,666,646 to Van Ierland et al.. The improvement comprises having a micro profiled area on a turbine blade in a deceleration zone and having a non profiled area in a flow acceleration zone. Battisti teaches a blade with micro profiling but shows the profiling over the whole blade and therefore does not meet the limitation of having a non profiled area in an acceleration zone. Wobben teaches a shark like coating but fails to teach a non profiled area of the blade. Savill discloses a drag reducing coating but fails to teach having a blade with the coating in the correct areas. Marentic et al. teaches a drag reducing structure that could be used on a blade but fails to teach the specific areas that are and are profiled. Van Ierland et al. teaches a drag reducing coating for turbine blades but fails to teach the coating on the claimed areas on the blade.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
